

I'm delighted to welcome you to our 2023

Biodanza Winter Gathering
Sunday 26th November

Sun 26 Nov

10.30pm - 5.30pm

Columcille Centre, Edinburgh

Deepening & Healing, celebrating the warmth of community
(previous experience of Biodanza required)

There will be gathering and sharing, dancing and ceremony to connect with the true meaning of this time of year: to be together in community, keeping joy, gratitude and love towards each other strong in our hearts as we travel through the darkness and cold. The strengthened inner link with community affection becomes the flame for our navigating star of light in the darkened world.

Together we embrace the inner stillness and surrender of winter nights, to share in the warmth of being with other's and the hope of Christmas-time gathering that encourages peace and love for all.

We will share food together in the cafe area at Columcille, bringing seasonal delights to welcome in the peace and reassurance of the coming Winter starry skies.
